Dysart seeks members for curriculum committee

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart School District is seeking members for the Curriculum Advisory Committee. Committee members will receive insight on Dysart curriculum and have the opportunity to express and share community beliefs and opinions about curricular issues with key curriculum leaders.

The first meeting is scheduled for the evening of January 21, 2010. Interested community members, parents and teachers must submit their name, phone number and email address to Tracey Ong-Jacobsen by January 15, 2010. Please email information to Tracey.Ong-Jacobsen@Dysart.org or call 623-876-7173. The Dysart School District looks forward to this occasion to cultivate important community connections as the district continues to develop curriculum and instruction for its students.
