Golf tournament to benefit DHS AVID program

DYSART SCHOOLS — Proceeds from the Don Sauter Memorial Golf Tournament, scheduled for January 16, will benefit the Dysart High School AVID program. The tournament, named after Don Sauter who volunteered in the Dysart School District, provides a college scholarship opportunity for a Dysart High School student.

The golf tournament is scheduled for Saturday, January 16, at the Grandview Golf Course, in Sun City West. Tee-time for the tournament is 11:30 and the tournament fee is $50, which includes dinner. All proceeds from the tournament will fund a college scholarship for a DHS student in the AVID program. For more information regarding the Don Sauter Memorial Golf Tournament to benefit the Dysart High School AVID program, please call Jean-Marie Seidl at 630.991.7975.
