Willow Canyon athletes sign with Division 1 colleges

DYSART SCHOOLS — Two athletes from Willow Canyon High School have signed letters of intent to attend and compete for two NCAA Division 1 universities. Football player Devin Dashnaw and soccer athlete Arianna Romero signed letters of intent at 7:32 a.m. on February 3. This marks the first time that an athlete from Willow Canyon High School has signed with a Division 1 university directly out of high school.

Devin Dashnaw will attend and play football for the University of Texas El-Paso (UTEP).

Dashnaw, a senior offensive lineman for Willow Canyon will enroll at UTEP in the fall. WCHS football coach, Mike Hudnutt, was excited for the opportunity that awaits Dashnaw. Hudnutt said, “We are happy for the opportunities that await Devin and are excited for the future and the possibilities that our athletes may have in following him to play at a Division 1 university.”

Senior Arianna Romero, a soccer athlete, will attend the University of Nebraska. Romero, like Dashnaw, is excited about the future and the opportunity to compete at a Division 1 university.
