FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — MARCH 2, 2010

Read Across America Day

DYSART SCHOOLS — Schools throughout the Dysart School District are celebrating Read Across America Day. Read Across America Day, March 2, 2010, is a day dedicated to the celebration of reading. Planned to coincide with Dr. Seuss' birthday, schools across the United States participate in special activities designed to celebrate a love for reading. Dysart schools are celebrating with guest readers, special reading activities and a day planned to celebrate the joy of reading.

Cimarron Springs Elementary school is enhancing their celebration by participating in a web-based broadcast of Read Across America Day. Cimarron Springs is joining schools in three other school districts with internet simulcasts of reading activities. To view the Cimarron Springs internet broadcast, please visit the Cimarron Springs website anytime during the day.
