FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — MARCH 4, 2010

Second Annual City of Surprise Youth Leadership Summit

DYSART SCHOOLS — Together with the Surprise Regional Chamber of Commerce, APS, the Dysart Unified School District, Rio Salado College and the Communiversity, the City of Surprise will be presenting the 2nd Annual Surprise Youth Leadership Summit. Surprise and Dysart Unified School District sophomores, juniors, and seniors wishing to develop leadership skills are encouraged to register.

This FREE one-day event will be held at the Communiversity on the Surprise City Hall Campus on Friday, March 26, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. The objective of the Summit is to provide an opportunity for high school leaders to expand on their skills and knowledge base by interacting with leaders from the community and learning their tips for success. City of Surprise Mayor Lyn Truitt will kick off the Summit which will feature Congressman Trent Franks, Chamber President David Moss and former teacher and motivational speaker Justin Boudreau.

All attendees will have the opportunity to visit informational tables representing a broad range of opportunities for getting involved in the community. The event is designed to promote community engagement and civic leadership amongst our youth. The Summit is just the starting point for a larger Surprise Youth Leadership Program slated to launch in the coming months in an effort to embrace the enthusiasm of these ambitious young leaders.

Summit registration forms are due Friday, March 19, 2010. Forms can be picked up at the Community & Recreation Services office located at 15960 N. Bullard Ave or downloaded from www.surpriseaz.com/recreation. There is limited space for this engagement. Early registration is recommended.
