Surprise Firefighters event to benefit Dysart students

DYSART SCHOOLS — The City of Surprise Firefighters Charities in collaboration with the Dysart Unified School Districts Community Education Department is hosting the third annual Fit to Fight: Desert Challenge Event. The event will be held on the campus of Valley Vista High School on Saturday, April 10. Festivities will begin with the Fit To Fight Run at 6:00 a.m. followed by the Police vs. Fire Softball Game at 12:00 p.m. and ending with the Firefighter Combat Challenge at 2:00 p.m. A Chili Cook-Off will also be a part of the day's events. Contestants can enter the Chili Cook-Off for a $20 entry fee. Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third place. Spectators can sample the chili for a $3.00 per person donation.

The Surprise Firefighters Charities event will benefit the students of Valley Vista and Willow Canyon High Schools through college scholarships. For more information about the Fit to Fight: Desert Challenge, or to register for any of the events please contact the Surprise Firefighter Charities at 623.565.8944 or the Dysart Community Education Department at 623.876.7056.
