FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — APRIL 5, 2010

Spring performances abound in Dysart

DYSART SCHOOLS — Dysart School District schools are making final preparations for upcoming Spring performances. Upcoming performances include:

Cimarron Springs Elementary

The Cimarron Springs Elementary School Chorus and 1-2nd Grade Students will have their Annual Spring Concert on April 7th, 2010 at 6pm in the Valley Vista Performing Arts Center Main Auditorium. This concert will be a benefit concert to raise money for the Surprise Chapter: Relay for Life Campaign which raises money for the American Cancer Society. Admission to the concert is free, but students are asking for donations at the door to support their cause. Representatives from the Relay for Life Campaign will be in attendance to help answer questions. The CSES Chorus will be performing songs they will also be performing on May 1st for the Relay for Life event. Currently 90 members for the CSES chorus will be walking at the event on May 1st honoring survivors of cancer, in remembrance of those who lost their battle and in helping to find a cure for the disease. The CSES Chorus and 1st-2nd grade students would like to invite Surprise community members to come enjoy an evening of music and donate to an amazing cause.

Shadow Ridge High School

Shadow Ridge High School's spring performance is right around the corner. For one night only, SRHS Theatre will be performing Perspective: Life Lessons, a collection of educational scenes written by teens for teens on the struggles that face them. The show will be at Willow Canyon High School in the auditorium on Monday April 12 at 7 pm. Admission to the show is two cans of food; all food will be donated to the St. Mary's Food Bank.
