FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — APRIL 12, 2010

Child Development Center accepting registration

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart Community Education Child Development Center provides services to children ages infant to four years of age. The purpose of the center is to provide learning opportunities in the areas of cognitive, language and social skills. Meeting the needs of each child, nurturing them in a positive learning environment and fostering high self-esteem are goals of the center. This program also works in conjunction with Dysart High School to provide experiences for high school students who are enrolled in the Child Development program. Children enrolled in the infant, toddler and preschool classes will have interaction with high school students under the supervision of an adult. The high school students will be observing and presenting age appropriate educational experiences.

Registration is now underway for next school year. Enrollments fill up quickly so don't delay. For registration or further information or to request a tour, call the Community Education Office at 623.876.7056 or 623.876.7979.
