Summer enrichment opportunities for elementary students

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart School District Educational Services Department is offering summer enrichment opportunities for 2-8 grade students throughout the month of June. Students can take one or two week summer courses for $45-$60. Each course runs from Monday through Friday from 9:00 – 12:00. The summer adventures include:

- Band Rocks- Rehearsals and sessions on techniques
- Musical Theatre- Activities in voice, movement and drama
- Young Authors- Creating short stories and poems using cool technology tools.
- Take Flight- Hands-on activities that journey into the principles of flight
- Script-Shoot-Show- Shoot movies Hollywood style from script to screen
- Investigation Station- Explore force, motion and simple machines
- C.S.I. - Experience the world of C.S.I. through experiments and mock crime scenes.

For more information, please visit www.dysart.org to view a video announcement of the program or call 623.876.7056. Space is limited and parents and students are encouraged not to delay.
