Mountain View receives Season for Sharing grant

DYSART SCHOOLS — Mountain View School was recently awarded an $8,000 grant from The Arizona Republic/12 News Season for Sharing campaign. The school's grant committee, led by teachers Melynda Wescott and Adriane Jahnke, submitted the grant application for PROJECT READ.

PROJECT READ is designed to identify students who need additional instructional assistance and provide them with added small group reading intervention instruction. Through this program, Mountain View School continues to ensure student success and create learning opportunities that students may otherwise miss. PROJECT READ helps every student reach their potential, one goal at a time.
