New governing board member appointed

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart School District Governing Board is set to return to five members. Maricopa County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Don Covey, has appointed Jerry Eynon to the Dysart Governing Board, replacing the vacant seat. Eynon, a retired teacher, took the oath of office for the governing board position on Tuesday, April 26 and will fill the vacated seat through the end of 2010.
