Dysart holds workshop for prospective board members

DYSART SCHOOLS — With two governing board seats up for election in November, the Dysart School District is holding a workshop for prospective board members to provide information about the district. Community members who may be interested in running for election for the governing board in November are encouraged to attend.

The Dysart prospective board member workshop, highlighting information about district finance, curriculum and instruction, human resources and school achievement, will be held on Monday, May 17, from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. The workshop will be held at the Dysart Education Center, located at 15802 N. Parkview Place, in Surprise. For more information please call the community relations office at 623.876.7195.
