Dysart welcomes new principals

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart Unified School District announces three new principals for the 2009-2010 school year. Dysart is excited to welcome Jean Hunt, principal at Western Peaks Elementary School, Michael Hawkins, principal at Shadow Ridge High School and Roberta Lockhart, principal at Dysart High School.

Jean Hunt joins the Dysart School District as the principal at Western Peaks Elementary School. Prior to joining Dysart, Ms. Hunt served as an elementary school principal in the Littleton and Wickenburg School Districts.

Michael Hawkins, principal at Shadow Ridge High School, has served the Dysart School District since 2006. Mr. Hawkins' prior responsibilities have included working as the assistant principal at Willow Canyon High School and as a teacher and administrator in the Glendale Union High School District.

Roberta Lockhart returns to Dysart High School as the new principal. Ms. Lockhart has been a part of the Dysart School District since 1994. She has worked as a teacher, assistant principal and most recently as the principal of the Sundown Mountain Alternative Program. Prior to joining the Dysart School District, Ms. Lockhart served as a teacher and coach in New York.
