Dysart seeks K-12 counseling committee members

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart School District is seeking parent and community members for an upcoming strategic plan committee. The K-12 Counseling Evaluation Action Team is seeking members for its meetings, beginning in November and culminating in January. The Counseling Evaluation committee's purpose is to design a program evaluation for the counseling program as well as evaluate the current counseling services for career and academics. The committee is expected to meet six times from November through January. Those interested in participating on the K-12 Counseling Evaluation committee should submit their interest via email to communityrelations@dysart.org or by calling 623.876.7195.
