Dysart Governing Board members recognized by ASBA

DYSART SCHOOLS — Members of the Dysart Governing Board have been recognized by the Arizona School Board Association (ASBA) for professional growth as a board member by earning educational credits offered through ASBA. Four Dysart board members were recognized at the October 21 meeting.

Bonnie Schroader has been awarded the ASBA Certificate of Orientation for earning 16 units of professional growth. Jennifer Tanner has been awarded the Certificate of Orientation for earning 17 units. April Allen has been awarded the Certificate of Orientation for earning 23.5 units. Christine Pritchard earned a total of 76.5 units, thus earning a Certificate of Boardsmanship and being recognized for an Associate of Boardsmanship.

ASBA congratulates these board members for their dedication to becoming more effective in their jobs as Governing Board Members by participating in these educational programs.
