Dysart bands shine

DYSART SCHOOLS — On Saturday November 7, the Willow Canyon Wildcat Marching Band performed at the Agua Fria Marching Festival. The Wildcats were announced as the band that received a unanimous rating of Superior from the judges in every category, resulting in a rating of Superior with Distinction. In addition to receiving this top honor at the festival, the Wildcat band also came home with four caption awards in the areas of music performance, percussion, auxiliary and general effect. Congratulations to the Wildcat Marching Band for earning these awards and a Superior with Distinction rating.

The Willow Canyon Band would like to invite the Dysart community to its marching band concert on November 17. The concert will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the Willow Canyon auditorium. Admission is free. The concert will feature music from the fall marching band season as well as recognition for all festival awards. Doors to the public will open at approximately 6:30 pm for seating.

The Valley Vista High School Marching Band also performed at the Agua Fria Marching Festival. Valley Vista performed its fall marching program and earned an Excellent rating with three captions in auxiliary, general effect and visual performance. Congratulations to the Valley Vista Band for earning the awards at the festival.
