Surprise Elementary Principal a Rodel finalist

DYSART SCHOOLS — Surprise Elementary School Principal, Dr. Dave Dumon, is a finalist for the 2012 Rodel Exemplary Principal Award. Dumon has been the principal at Surprise Elementary School for ten years and is the first Dysart principal to be named a finalist for the Rodel Award. Dumon has also been a past recipient of the Arizona PTA Educator of the Year Award.

The Rodel Exemplary Principals are selected for their demonstrated ability to lead high-need schools to success by inspiring their staffs to develop a campus that is high achieving, safe, orderly and welcoming. Surprise Elementary School has seen continued academic achievement growth, resulting in the school earning a state “B” grade, two points away from an “A” grade. The Rodel Exemplary Principal Award will be announced on January 22 at www.rodelaz.org.
