Dysart welcomes back students

DYSART SCHOOLS — The Dysart Unified School District welcomed back students for the 2011-2012 school year for the first day of school on August 8. Dysart welcomed nearly 25,000 students for the 2011-2012 school year. The Dysart School District continues to grow in enrollment, welcoming more than 600 additional students on the first day. To assist with the growth in enrollment, the district is adding an additional 13.5 teachers to its current teaching staff of nearly 1,300 teachers to maintain the district's commitment to class size goals.

The Dysart School District continues to offer school choice options for parents within the district. Additionally, Dysart has approximately 800 students from outside the district enrolled in its schools.
